THE CARPENTER FAMILY

The Carpenters that migrated to Mississippi in the early days of Lauderdale County were descended from the Normans that were in Cornwall, England at the beginning of the 14th century. Two of the descendants of the family that are now living in Lauderdale County, William L. John Rice married Elizabeth Hopkins of Nash Co, and they had ten children, Nancy being the second child and oldest daughter. John died in Nash Co, NC on April 29,1836.

March 1841 - grievance between Wm. Allen & Ben Carpenter
June 1841 " Cleared up

Ben was a cotton planter and farmed in Greene County until 1834. With the land offered for sale in Mississippi, he felt that it was time to move on to new cotton fields. The high price of slaves and the low price of land in the new country helped him to make up his mind to the change. He had done well in Greene County, but he had skimmed the fertility from the soil and the newer, richer land beckoned. In 1834 Ben and Nancy Carpenter sold out in Alabama and moved on to Lauderdale County, Mississippi, and bought land from the government.

Their frontier home in Lauderdale County was in the great forest with no really close neighbors. However, some of the Richardson, Alford, Sanderford amd Tutt families, friends of long standing, also made the move and were within walking distance from the Carpenters. Some of these old friends they had known in North Carolina and had also lived near in Greene County, and the families had intermarried, so they were not without acquaintances in the new country. Had 9 slaves in 1848, Land Co was on poll list in 1835.

As soon as the immediate problems of building a place to live and clearing the fields to get the crops started were taken care of, some of the neighbors called a meeting to organize a church. Nancy Carpenter, especially, wanted a place to worship, and she invited all their friends, neighbors, kinfolks, over one springtime day to meet and talk about it. It was on the Saturday before the second Sunday in April, 1838, they met at the home of Benjamin Carpenter and organized a Baptist Church. Among the ones that met that day were their daughter, Elizabeth Sanderford, wife of Gray Sanderford who lived not too far distant, and their daughter, Willie Denton, who had married Harvey W. Denton. Nancy Carpenter, being the lady that she was and taking into consideration the hospitality of Southern families, more than a little likely served teacakes and perhaps some cold buttermilk from the springhouse.

March 1845 Ben excluded from church for drinking & recanted.

Ben Carpenter was concerned because there were no schools for his children. Some of the neighbors got together to plan a school and David M. Brown, who also valued education, was among those present. He agreed to teach if they would each pay him a fee, and he had an old house on some land that he had bought near his home. They all agreed and the younger Carpenters attended the new school, which was near the beautiful drip-off spring and was called by that name.

From 1834 to 1839, Ben Carpenter was justice court judge, and in 1840 he was elected county tax assessor and collector for Lauderdale County.

Benjamin and Nancy remained in Lauderdale County where the younger of their children grew up and married. In 1839 their son-in-law, Gray Sanderford sold them 160 acres in Section 24, Township 8, Range 15E, in what later became the Center Hill Community. Ben's oldest son, Samuel, and his son-in-law, Harvey Denton, witnessed the signing of the deed.

The 1860 census showed that Ben and Nancy were living in the Sookalina ? Community. That was before Ben died on October 16, 1865. Nancy lived until after 1870. He owned 18 slaves in 1860
Their children were as follows:

Mississippi, where Gray bought land in 1836. He bought land in (now) Pine Springs as well as in (present-day) Center Hill Communities, but it is not now known for sure where they made their home.

Betsy and Gray Sanderford had seven children before she died in 1848 (or 1849?). She was probably buried at Fellowship Baptist Church, as she was a member there. She was a good Christian lady and was one of the founding members of that church.

Gray waited several years before he married Catherine McCall in 1870. Gray and Catherine had three sons but he died when they were quite small. More on this is listed under the Sanderford family history.

OUR MOTHER'S FAMILY: PARENTS, BROTHERS, AND SISTERS

Grandfather William Eades Jolly was born December 14, 1817, died March 15, 1890, age 72 years, 3 months, one day. He is buried at Union, Mississippi. William Eades Jolly married February 3, 1864, his second wife, our grandmother (her second husband), Mary Ann Rogers Carpenter Jolly. She was born March 17, 1828, died July 18, 1898, age 70 years and four months. She is buried at Bethel Church, Nellieburg, Mississippi.

Our Grandmother Jolly, who was Mary Ann Rogers, first married R. B. Carpenter _____. They had five children: Martha L. Carpenter, born December 10, 1848, married William Blanks; Benjamin H. Carpenter, born April 16, 1851; William T. Carpenter, born August 31, 1854, died April 16, 1856; Charley C. Carpenter, born April 27, 1858, died July 26, 1890; and M. F. Carpenter, born March 12, 1862, died February 3, 1863.

R. B. Carpenter was the son of Benjamin and Nancy _____ Carpenter. He was born August 15, 1828, died December 31, 1862, at the Battle of Murphreesboro in Tennessee.

Our Grandfather William Eades Jolly, born December 14, 1817, in Alabama, first married R. B. Carpenter's sister Harriet on March 10, 1845. She was born April 18, 1825. This William E. Jolly and Harriet Carpenter Jolly had five children: Virginia A. Jolly, born February 17, 1846, married J. K. Polk White, died December 21, 1894, buried in Mt. Carmel Cemetery; Mary Elisa, born January 28, 1849, married Richard L.

11 Mary Elisa Jolly daughter of William and Harriet Carpenter Jolly married Richard Lane Blanks. Richards nephew brother William Henry Blanks III married Martha L. Carpenter the daughter of Benjamin Martha L. Carpenter (see Page 11, Paragraph Two) was born December 10, 1848, married William H. Blanks, III, on November 1, 1867. He died May 8, 1922 in Laurel, MS, but she was still living in 1925. Their children were: Ida, Ada, John, Annie Josephine, Ora, William and Velma.

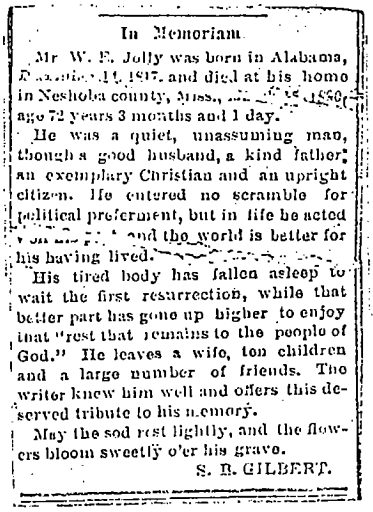
Charles Clinton Carpenter (see Page 11, Paragraph Two) was born April 27, 1858, married Sarah Elizabeth Hamrick on January 24, 1883. They had three children: John Rice, Thomas Irvin, and Ada Lula. All are buried at Hamrick Cemetery in Collinsville, MS. Charles died July 26, 1890.



In Memoriam.

Mr W. E. Jolly was born in Alabama, [illegible] 14, 1817, and died at his home in Neshoba county, Miss., [illegible] 1880, age 72 years 3 months and 1 day.

He was a quiet, unassuming man, though a good husband, a kind father, an exemplary Christian and an upright citizen. He entered no scramble for political preferment, but in life he acted [illegible] and the world is better for his having lived.

His tired body has fallen asleep to wait the first resurrection, while that better part has gone up higher to enjoy that "rest that remains to the people of God." He leaves a wife, ten children and a large number of friends. The writer knew him well and offers this deserved tribute to his memory.

May the sod rest lightly, and the flowers bloom sweetly o'er his grave.

S. B. GILBERT.

I am enclosing a Zerox copy of . . . obituary. . . of my great-grandfather William Ead(e)s Jolly of 1890. The article seems to corroborate the statement on page 11 that he was born in Alabama and the fact that the 1860 census lists his place of birth as Alabama as mentioned in the footnote on page 13. I would still say, however, that this is not possible. In the census reports of 1870 and 1880 he is listed as being born in Georgia. There are also records which indicate that his father and uncle were living in Georgia in 1820 and his brother was born in Georgia in 1823. His father and mother (Frances Ead(e)s) were both from Pendelton County South Carolina and were married either there or in Georgia.

Tom Jolly

Blanks January 11, 1867, died January 24, 1902, buried at Suqualena; NathanA. Jolly, born December 12, 1851, died July 18, 1854; Cornelia A. Jolly, born September 18, 1855, married I.H. Vincent March 7, 1878, died December 20, 1902, buried in Hamrick Cemetery, Collinsville; William James Jolly (our Uncle Bud and Cousin Tom's grandfather), born March 20, 1859, married Emma J. Blanks January 15, 1880, died June 24, 1931, buried at Bethel Church, Nellieburg. William James Jolly's wife, our Aunt Emma Blanks, was born November 20, 1860, died February 26, 1936. Uncle Bud was eight years old when our mother was born. Uncle Bud and Aunt Emma had eight children:

Daisy Alma Jolly, born November 16, 1880, married Adolphus Gustavus Dodd and died January 7, 1966.

Lillian I. Jolly, born February 20, 1882, died as an infant, July 26, 1885.

Thomas Young Jolly, born May 1, 1884, married Erie Waters, died September 21, 1910.

Queenie Maureen Jolly, born November 30, 1886, married R. N. Reeves, died in 1964.

William Eades Jolly, born December 3, 1888, married Lucille Jack, died summer 1966.

Ethel Mattie Jolly, born March 21, 1891, married Rufus Jeffers, died March 11, 1960.

Nell Eunice Jolly, born October 31, 1894, married Theo Weaver.

Sidney Eugene Jolly, (Cousin Tom's father) born September 25, 1896, married Eva Jones August 5, 1922. Died April 13, 1985.

Cousin Tom Jolly tells something about Uncle Bud's grandchildren:

> Aunt Daisy Dodd had two daughters, Louise (born May 3, 1905) and Cecil (born December 24, 1903, died [illegible], 1956). Thomas Young had one son, Thomas Young, Jr., now dead. (I don't know the dates). Aunt Queenie Reeves had four sons, Alvin, Leroy, Nelson, andWilliam, all living. Uncle Will or William had two sons, William, Jr., killed in auto accident and Ed, and two daughters, Lucille and Frances are living. Aunt Ethel had one son, whose name I do not know, and two daughters, Marjorie, deceased, and Elaine, living. Aunt Nell has no children and now lives in Greenville, Mississippi. My father, Sidney Eugene, Sr., has two sons, Sidney Eugene, Jr., (born February 1, 1924) and myself, William Thomas (born April 8, 1929).

Cousin Tom thinks William Eades Jolly, our grandfather, was born in Georgia or South Carolina[3] and was the son of a William Jolly and Frances Eades. It is also believed that this William Jolly had several brothers: Bradly, John, and Daniel. Cousin Tom also says William Eades Jolly, our grandfather, had several brothers. One, Nathan Coleman Jolly, is buried in Neshoba County, Mississippi. He had a son, Joe Jolly, cousin to Uncle Bud, Alice, Ludie, and John.

Harriet Carpenter Jolly, our Grandfather Jolly's first wife, died January 30, 1863. It is thought she is buried at Paces Church, Lauderdale County, Mississippi. There is no tombstone or record. She died one month after her brother, R. B., died at the Battle of Murphreesboro. One year later, on February 3, 1864, William Eades Jolly married R. B. Carpenter's widow, Mary Ann Rogers Carpenter. These two are our mother's parents. They had three children:

① Alice E. Jolly, born March 27, 1865, died December 28, 1919, married Henry Jefferson Williamson _____, 1884,
